Bake for The Cowshed

JUSTGIVING SET-UP GUIDE

Thank you for choosing to hold a bake sale for The Cowshed. By fundraising for us, you're helping provide essential items and practical support to people in our local community who are facing crisis.

Setting up a JustGiving page is the easiest way to collect donations and share your bake sale with friends, family and colleagues.

HOW TO SET UP YOUR JUSTGIVING PAGE

Step 1: Go to JustGiving
Visit www.justgiving.com and click "Start fundraising."

Step 2: Sign in or create an account
You can sign up using your email address, or log in with Google or Facebook.

Step 3: Choose your charity
Search for The Cowshed and select it from the list.

Step 4: Tell JustGiving what you're doing
Choose "Something else" (or a similar option) and type:
Bake sale for The Cowshed

Step 5: Create your page
You'll be asked to add:

- Page title
  e.g. "Bake for The Cowshed – Office/School Bake Sale"
- Fundraising target
  Pick something motivating (for example £50, £100 or £250)
- Your story
  You can write your own or copy the ready-made story below.

Step 6: Add a photo (highly recommended)
Upload a picture of your bakes, your poster, or your stall.
Pages with photos usually raise more money.

Step 7: Publish your page
Check your details, then click "Create" or "Publish."
Your page is now live.

SHARE YOUR PAGE AND BOOST DONATIONS

Share your link before, during and after your bake sale:

- WhatsApp groups
- Work or school emails
- Facebook, Instagram or LinkedIn
- On posters (you can turn your link into a QR code)

Top tip: remind people they can donate even if they can't attend.
